Evacuation strategy for Indian citizens abroad

2252. SHRI RAJEEV SHUKLA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the total number of Indian citizens living in various war-prone and crisis-ridden areas of the world;

(b) whether Government have a strategy for expeditious evacuation of Indian Nationals from a country in case of a sudden war breaking out;

(c) if so, the salient features thereof; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI ANAND SHARMA): (a) The number of Indians living in war-prone crisis-ridden areas of the world is around 18000.

(b) and (c) As per Government instructions, Indian Missions in countries with sizeable Indian population are required to prepare a contingency plan to facilitate the evacuation of Indian nationals from the country concerned in the event of a war/crisis. The contingency plan is vetted by the Ministry of External Affairs and activated in consultation with other concerned Ministries/agencies of the Government whenever large scale evacuation of Indian nationals is undertaken; the Indian nationals are evacuated to either a safe neighbouring country or to India depending on the situation in the region and other factors.

(d) Does not arise.

Posts of coaches lying vacant

2253. SHRIMATI N.P. DURGA: Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there are a number of posts of coaches and assistant coaches lying vacant in different federations of the country;

(b) whether it is also a fact that recently the Government has transferred 450 coaches belonging to various federations;

(c) if so, the details of (a) and (b) above; and

(d) the details of federations in the State of Andhra Pradesh where vacancies of coaches are lying vacant for more than one year, federation-wise and the steps taken to fill the same?

THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) National Sports Federation have their own recruitment norms depending on the requirement of the sports discipline. However, Sports Authority of India (SAI) has 1438 coaches on its role. These coaches are deployed across the country in SAI Schemes, State Coaching Centers and University Field Stations. There has been no recruitment of regular coaches in SAI since 1994. In the year 1997, there were 1600 coaches borne on SAI establishment. The number of coaches had gone down due to retirements.

(b) and (c) In the months of June and July, 2005 about 700 coaches were redeployed from ineffective placements which were mostly district coaching centers that were not under the administrative control of SAI. The coaches were redeployed to look after SAI run schemes and increase the number of trainees with SAI. These coaches did not belong to Sports Federations but were paid employees of SAI.

(d) SAI does not have the details of the vacancies of Coaches in Andhra Pradesh with the Federations but recently the Finance Committee of SAI has allowed SAI to appoint coaches on contract basis. The process of recruitment has started and soon the coaches will be appointed only in
